Good Morning SA3 Cobras!

Our "scheduled" spring break has come to an end and we will be transitioning to "distance learning" for your classwork. Hopefully you and your parents are staying connected with all the notices coming from our Superintendent, Director of Curriculum & Instruction, and SA3 which will give you direction and instruction during this time.

During this transition to Distance Learning you will do the best you can with what is provided to you: by your teachers, our campus and our district resources; through Google Classroom, BlackBoard, email, internet...or whichever method is communicated to you by your teachers. The best advice at this time is to communicate; we are all learning during this transition and we will work out any issues together. Reach out to your teachers or myself if you have any questions or need help finding resources.

This is all about staying connected; this is a time for all of us to be creative and think differently. This email to you is just that: reaching out to you and letting you know we are here to offer academic and emotional support even if it's online. We will be sending you information regarding TSI, STC courses, course requests for next year, etc. Do not hesitate to contact me via email or Remind if you need anything.

Let's work on keeping our mind and body busy, using healthy coping skills, communicate and share our concerns, and grow through these circumstances. Remember that we are only an email or Remind message away. If you are not on Remind, please join using the codes below:
